NO COMPROMISE SAYS Will Wage War on Federals Until They Are Completely Crushed.

"There will never be a compromise of any sort between Organized Baseball and the Federal league, for the fight is on to a finish. Mr. Gilmore and his press agents may try to mislead the public is believing we are ready to listen to a truce, but that ready to listen to a truce, but that is about as far as the matter will go. Practicing the unscrupulous methods they have in an attempt to wreck the national game to serve the needs of their own pocketbooks, Organized Ball could not think of making peace now or at any other time. Our hope is to exterminate them and their methods—practices that have hurt baseball in the eyes of the public. The Feds may talk all the peace talk they want to, but such a think is impossible."

So spoke President Ban Johnson of the American league. Mr. Johnson

So spoke President Ban Johnson of the American league. Mr. Johnson besides talking about general conditions and fine impracticability of 10 cent baseball shed a new light on Joe Jackson's case. Ban openly accuses Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federal league club, of trying to steal the heavy hitting outfielder from the Cleveland club. The interesting part of it is Tinker, so Johnson says, was fully aware of the fact that Jackson was obliged by contract to fulfil his obligations with President Somers. Shoeless Joe's contract called for service for this year and next. Johnson applies the lash to Tinker for the attempted kidnapping and declares that it is just such methods that are helping to drive the Feds to the wall. Tinker didn't ge after Jackson bilindfolder, said Johnson. "He knew that Jackson held an ironclad contract with Somers. Some time ago we heard a lot from the Federal blindfolder. Said: Johnson. "He knew that Jackson held an ironcial contract with Somers. Some time ago we heard a lot from the Federal league how they obtained players clean handed. Tinker would have rebbed the Cleveland club of Jackson had his plans gone through, c but Jackson himself spoiled this when his changed his mind and decided to remain loyal to organized bail.

Tinker even told Jackson that he wan't sure that he would be able to play him next year because of his contract, but was willing to pay Jackson a salary until his contract with Somers expired. Tinker's idea was to come, specialties alowed the cleveland club of Jackson that he wan't sure that he would be able to play him next year because of his some a salary until his contract with Somers expired. Tinker's idea was to come, specialties and by so doing deal us a damaging blow and establish infore pressing for the Chicago Federals, You see where Jackson stood when his was given a chance to play in Chicago. The public is aware of these unbusinessilize methods and doesn't intend to support baseball fosfered in that manner. The attendance at the Federal league parks shows this, and now they are trying to win the public with what they call 10 cent baseball.

Air. Johnson has been rather silent on the Federal league parks and the public with what they call 10 cent baseball.

The novation will prove successful Purthermore, he characterizes the move as an admission of weakness in that they expect to draw the crowds through reduced rates. Also the public has failed to take to their so-called stars.

"Ten cent ball," said 3tr. Johnson, may make a hit with a certain class of people, but it doesn't belong to manior league has been the public has failed to take to their so-called stars.

"Ten cent ball," said 3tr. Johnson, may make a hit with a certain class of people, but it doesn't belong to manior league has been the profit to the foreign selling. Total works the profit of the foreign selling. Total of the recent foreign selling. Total of the recent forei public has failed to take to their so-called stars.

"Ten cent ball," said Mr. Johnson,
"may make a hit with a certain class of people, but it doesn't belong to major league baseball. In the first place the game as it is supported today cannot survive on such low rates.
Then again the public demands high class ball, and unless high class prices are changed it is impossible to cater properly to demands."

Johnson cannot see where 10 cent half is going to help the Feds anl, and prices are changed it is impossible to cater properly to demanda."

Johnson cannot see where 10 cent half is going to help the Feds anl, and he believes the players will feel the effects if the rival organization decides to officially on cheap scales. Speaking on these lines he said:

"In the end I believe the player will feel the effect of the cut. The Feds loday carry a heavy salary list, and magnuch as they have drawn small rowds how can they hope to succeed on lower rates? The thing will aventually rebound on the player. It's the biggest mistake they have yet made. In order to give the fans 10 rent ball they will have to pay 10 rent ball they willing to pay for it. The dea sounds very fine, but practical baseball men are fully, aware of the late that 10 cent baseball cannot be harried on successfully."

Mr. Johnson was asked if he didn't think that the Feds cut their rates in a neffort to deal organized ball a blow had to win public support.

"The Federal league," he replied, "hought we would have to reduce bur prices also when they adopted a new scale. We don't have to cheap-in baseball, for the public has proved to us that it is satisfied with value scelved. Of course the attendance igures in some cities are smaller than not year, but this isn't anything to be wondered at when one stops to hink that this generation is passing hrough one of the most trying times in the world's history.

"The war has hurt the game a lot in deeple don't seem to be as interested as they were before it startid. The Feds, too, have hurt the name; but as the race tightens up and he season draws to a close the old pithusiasm seems to be reviving."

RUBE MARQUARD SOLD TO TORONTO

McGraw's $11,000 Peach Displayed Poor Form This Season All Major Clubs Waived Claims Because of Rube's High Salary-Port-sider Unwilling to Join Toronto.

New York, Aug. 25.—Richard (Rube)
Marquard, left handed pitcher, was sold today by the New York Nationals to the Poronto club of the International League. Under the terms of the transaction the Glants are to get Pitcher Herbert from the Canadian team. It is understood that all major league clubs waived claims to Marquard because of their unwillingness to pay the high salary which his contract calls for. This salary will undoubtedly be paid off by the two clubs. Marquard declared his unwillingness to John the Toronto club and wants his unconditional release.

Marquard came to New York in 1995 when $11,000 was paid to the Indianapolis club for him. He did not play much until 1911 when he began to develop and the next year made a record by pitching 19 straight victories. Last season he defeated Pittsburgh in 21 innings, the longest game ever played in the National League.

The New York Nationals also announced the purchase of Catcher Robert Schang from the Pittsburgh Nationals for the waiver price. He is a brother of Waiter Schang, the catcher of the Philadelphia Americans.

Otey Crandall, one time Giant, is pitching good ball for the St. Louis Terriers. He has scored thirteen victories for the Jones club this season.

Babe Morton, who failed to hit when Frank Chance had him as successor to Hal Chase, is pounding the ball at a .275 clip for the St. Louis Federals. Otto Knabe, manager of the Balti-more Feds, will probably draw a sus-pension as a result of his argument with Otis Stockdale, the new Fed um-

Outfielder Larry Chappell, who was turned back by the White Sox to Mil-waukee club of the American associa-tion, has turned down an offer to join the Pittsburgh Federals.

The Superbas enjoyed their greatest swaifest of the season Monday, collecting twenty-three hits. Every man on the team got two or more hits excepting Hummell, who made one.

It is said certain National League magnates oppose the appointment of O'Day as umpire. Manager McGraw is sai dto be against his return although the Giangs' leader denies that he does not favor the idea. Joe Shrugrue, who was forced out of the ring by eye trouble some months ago, is said to be seriously considering a come back in the fall. Shugrue had to undergo some operations and for a time it was feared that he was going blind. He recently took a figer in the theatrical game and proved that as an actor he is a great lightweight. The little Jerseyite was a big favorite when the eye trouble forced him to retire from the ring.

Charley Babbington, the Brown university player with the Giants, should make a great player for McGraw. He has all the natural qualifications for the grand old game along with a world of confidence. It is unusual for the grand player into for a coloring barbeling into for the grand ways. And if so, will Germany make the grand ways.

Arthur Nehf, the recruit pitcher, secured by the Boston Braves from Terre Haute, made a great impression on his first appearance in a Boston uniform." He may be the twirler sought by Stallings to take the place of Big Bill James. With another man to work in turn with Tyler and Rudolph, the Braves' dream of a sec-ond pennant may not be so futile.
